BENNINGS OPENING TAME,

RECENT BETTING DECISION SCARES BOOK-MAKERS AND CONFUSES PATRONS.

Oxford an Easy Victor in the Columbia Handicar -Miller Rides Three Winners-Four Favorites Win.

Washington, D. C., November 16,-This was strenuous day for Bennings. It was not alone one of anticipation and expectation, but it was one of endurement. That is, it was of that sort for the layers of odds. Rumors were prevalent from daylight until the time came for the races to begin First one would be that things had been smoothed out, then another would follow quickly that Major Sylvester and his band of Hawkshaws would swooj down upon the bookies and haul them to the dungeor vile. This had the effect of making the day's spor dull and ineffective. There were plenty of the booking fraternity on hand, but few of them were willing to take the chances that Billy Davis did, when he offered himself as a subject for the test case between the authorities and the Washington Jockey Club. Davis came out of the fray scathed but with a sentence of two hours. This was simply a nominal sentence, but Supreme Court Judge Stafford let it be known that future offenders would no get away so easily.

In fear that there might be a raid of some sor by the authorities few of the booking contingen wanted to take chances. They stood around before the races and it seemed a case of dare between They had been marshaled together at noon and instructed as to the mode of procedure by Bob Pinkerton, but each one seemed to wait upon the other. When it finally came time to start proceed ings about seventy-five bookies took places in the

They did not have any stools as formerly. The were nowhere in sight and the layers had to chairs stand about the former betting ring and simply deal with people that they knew. They did not dare to exhibit any prices and contented themselves with simply showing them to persons who sought the information. This sort of betting was all right for the regulars, but for the general public it was all wrong. Few bets were recorded during the afternoon, except where the bookmakers knew whon they were dealing with. They refused to take any markers and whatever speculation there was was confined to the layers themselves and their friends

The feature was the Columbia Handicap, but it was run over a track that was heavy and holding Jimmy McLaughlin's gray horse, Oxford came hom an easy winner. Despite the fact that he had the top weight of 126 pounds he made all his own pace and won very easily.

It seems certain that the public of the capitol will not stick to the sport of kings unless betting prevails. Today there was not more open betting prevails. than about 2,000 people on the grounds. An hour before the opening race there was scarcely 500 peo The late trains brought big cro however, and by the time the stake was run the assemblage was respectably good.

Both ring manager Cavanagh and Bob Pinkerton predict things will be all right in a few days. I was their idea that the reformers would not inter-fere and that the racing will go along undisturbed until the appeal to the highest court is decided. If this is so, it will be only a short time before the sport is again in full blast.

However, many of the fraternity are already packing up and others are ready to get back to There is not much to be gathered here, New York. even if the laws should suit the jockey club. Tim has already been lost that otherwise would have been valuable. The meeting could have been trans ferrerd to Pimlico, but the date for doing tha effectively has been passed.

RUNNING WATER'S RACES THIS YEAR.

One of the conspicuous fillies of the year and by far the best in training at the end of the season the fleet and staying Running Water, a bay by Sir Dixon-Breakwater, and his sire's best represen tative in 1906. It is quite possible that Whimsical, both at their best, was her superior, but since they did not meet in a race that is a matter of guess Whimsical was a high-class filly, but un fortunate in being forced into retirement by the development of a ringbone. Prior to this she had run some remarkable races in fierce competition with the best horses of the year. Running Water began the year as the property of Woodford Clay. was sold along with her stable companion Con tent to the Newcastle Stable, and the majority of her successes were achieved in the colors of the

She was unplaced in her first two races. She was not then ready and the races were a part of her training into condition. Her first race was at Gravesend, June 14, in a purse race at a mile and seventy yards, which Logistilla, then in grand won with Moonshine second and Coy Maid Running Water finished last. Her next essay was in a purse at Sheepshead Bay, June 25 It was a dash of a mile, run in 1:39; at the finish Grenade, 112, was first by three-quarters of a length from Dainty, 118; she a head before Von Tromp, 109, and he a fraction of a length before Running Water, 106. This race demonstrated that

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE OPENING HANDICAP.

The first important event of each recurring season of winter racing in California is the running of the Opening Handicap. This is always run on the first day of the California Jockey Club's meeting and usually draws a good field of speedy milers. Such fast horses as Satsuma, Recreation, Cromwell, Hagerdon, Corrigan, Gold Money and San Nicholas figure in its list of winners, while such other good ones as Libertine, The Roman, Schwalbe, Rosinante, Rosormonde, Kenilworth, Ananias, Fossil, Modrine and High Chancellor have been forced to go down in defeat in striving for its honors. The record of the race is as the filly was about fit and ready to take brackets This she did in her next race, at the same track, June 30. It was in a dash of a mile and a sixteenth, over the grass course and, with ninety-six pounds up, she easily defeated Tradition, 106; and Snow King, 108, running Polly, 106, the distance in 1:47%.

Her next start was in a stake race and she was beaten. This was in the Spindrift Handicap at Sheepshead Bay, July 5. The starters were Kuroki, 114; Running Water, 115; Flip Flap, 123; In-quisitor, 121; Bat, 111; Maxie Witt, 106; Belle of Pequest, 100, and Heaslip, 117. The distance was a mile and an eighth, and at the end Kuroki was first by two lengths with Running Water second a head before Flip Flap. The race was run in 1:534. Then she was sold to the Newcastle Stable and sent to Saratoga. Here she won her first stake race of This was the Alabama Stakes, for three year-old fillies, and run August 9; distance, one and She carried 116 pounds setting the pace all the way, won cantering in 1:52%, with Brookdale Nymph, 124, second; Comedienne 121, third, and Belgravia, 121, unplaced. Running Water was a 2 to 5 post favorite. more at Saratoga, her next start being for a purse at Sheepshead Bay at a mile. This she won easily in 1:40, with the two-year-olds Montgomery and Sir William Johnson in second and third places spectively. At the same meeting she had to submit to defeat from Nealon in the September Stakes, at a mile and three-eighths. It was a fast run race for which the starters were Nealon, 122 pounds; Running Water, 119; Tangle, 123; Disobedient, 103, and Moonshine, 103. Nealon won in 2:19 by a length and a half, and Running Water beat Tangle five lengths for second place. It was the fastest run race in the history of the September. Her next race also found her bringing up in second place. This was in the First Special at Brooklyn. The starters and the order of the finish were Cottontown, 117 pounds; Running Water, 114; Tangle, 114; Go Between, 126; Dishabille, 123; First Mason, 123, and Colonial Girl, 123. Running Water set the pace and after running the first mile in 1:40, finally sucnumbed to the stern challenge of Cottontown, but in a desperate finish only lost by a nose with Tangle and Go Between but scant heads away. The mile and a quarter was run in 2:05%, and the finish between the first four was one of the most thrilling of the year. In her next race she defeated Tangle in the Second Special at a mile and a half over a muddy track. Only the two started. Each carpounds. After both had run under a pull ried 107 for a mile and a quarter, Running Water outsprinted Tangle through the stretch and won by a length in 2:45%. Tangle's admirers blamed jockey Sewell for not forcing a fast pace all the way, but it is more than probable that the result would not have been different if he had done so. ber 27, she won the Albemarle Handicap, for fillies and mares, at a mile and a sixteenth. The track was muddy. She had up 124 pounds and easily de ceated Coy Maid, 117 pounds; Dishabille, 126; True Wing, 107; Zienap, 105; winning by two and a half lengths in 1:50. It was a performance of high merit, for only a few days previously Coy Maid had won the Occidental Handicap from such cracks as Dolly Spanker, Good Luck, Cottontown, Dande lion, Oxford, Nealon and Go Between

Two days later Oxford, with but 105 pounds up to her 120, beat her by three-quarters of a lengtl for the Oriental Handicap, at a mile and a quarter. It was run in 2:05\frac{4}{2}. Good Luck, with 113 up was third, two lengths away, and the unplaced one were Fine Cloth, 104; Cederstrome, 89; True Wing Dishabille. 118; Ostrich, 111; Cottontown, 122 and Outcome. 110. It was now her turn to win and at Belmont Park, October 18, she won the Ramape Handicap, for three-year-olds, at a mile and an It was a fine, fast race and, with 121 pounds up to Hot Toddy's 119, she beat him easily by a length and a half in 1:51%. Nealon, 117, was third; Guiding Star, 102, and Ironsides, 119, ran Then, after a tremendous set-to unplaced. Nealon, she won the Belmont Park Autumn Weight for Age race at two miles and a quarter. The two raced head and head for all of the long route and she only won by a few inches in 4:012. Cricket was the only other starter and was far down the stretch at the finish.

At Aqueduct, November 6, the two-year-old Philander, with ninety pounds up to her 122, defeated her for the Election Day Handicap, in 1:52%; Angle with 102 pounds was third, and Oxford, Agile Bad News, A. Muskoday, Cairngorm and Belmere ran unplaced. Four days later she won the Edge mere Stakes, at weight for age, from Frank Gill, in 1:52, a new track record. She only won by a head and Philander was third, five lengths back, with Fish Hawk and Agile unplaced. Both of these races were at a mile and an eighth. CONCENTRATING NEAR LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., November 16 .- The thoroughbred broodmares comprising the breeding establishments of Miller, Bishop and Painter, and Elliott C. Cow din of Mount Kisco, N. Y., arrived here today The former, consisting of thirty-two head of mare and weanlings, were sent to the La Belle Farm, while the Cowdin shipment consisted of ten mares and six weanlings and were sent to the Hamilton Farm, on which Cowdin has secured a lease. Bishop and Painter will arrive here next week and endeavor to purchase a bluegrass farm.

JUSTICE STAFFORD'S DECISION.

The outcome of the case at Washington against ookmaker Davis, was entirely unexpected. defendant and his lawyers relied upon the decision of former Justice Bradley in the Klein case, but Justice Stafford surprised all hands by a decision that left the jury no option but to bring in a verdict of guilty. That it did so unwillingly was shown by its remaining out an hour and twenty Justice Bradley, one of his ablest prede cessors on the same bench, in the Klein case in 1899, which was identical with that of Davis, had instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of acquittal. the strength of the latter decision this book making has been conducted in recent years outside of the mile limit at Bennings. The case is one of such interest to all concerned in racing that Justice Stafford's ruling to the jury is here presented:

"It seems that a case was brought in 1895 with an indictment exactly like that. It was demurred to; it went to the Court of Appeals, and the Court of Appeals held that the indictment was good; that if the facts therein alleged were established the offense would be proved.

'The court took notice of what bookmaking is In the opinion it shows that it understood bookmak-ing to be what it has been described to be in this The court, in the opinion delivered in that case, said that setting up and carrying on book making in that way was setting up a gambling table.

Attention was called to the fact that another act, which is now incorporated in Section 869 of the Code. prohibited bookmaking in terms, and the court said that, notwithstanding that, the defendant would be liable for setting up a gaming table if he set up and carried on bookmaking in the way described in the opinion and charged in the indictment.

"The court undertook to distinguish between the mere making of books and the setting up or keeping of the bookmaking arrangement. Now, unless there is some substantial differences between th facts presented by the evidence in this case and the facts in the mind of the court at the time it ren dered that decision, I am absolutely bound to follow that decision. Is there any such difference?

"I can see nothing from my study of the opinion to indicate that there is any difference. The cour had in mind that a bookmaker was one who offere to make a bet and record it, so identifying the bet and the bettor that after the contest was winner could claim his winnings, and that this should be done in a place sufficiently fixed and per manent so that it could be fairly said that the con the scheme or the game had been set up there. Now it seems to me it makes no difference whether it was set up in a booth or in some other place.

"The evidence pretends to show that this defend ant belonged to an association of layers of odds who divided between themselves the space which layers of odds are allowed to occupy, that each one had a certain place relative to the others, and each one had his number

"It does not appear, and there is no evidence tending to show that these layers of odds had any right between themselves and the owners of th property to be in any particular place, but they did in fact remain there. The evidence tends to show in fact remain there. each one substantially in his own place on any particular day. Of course that was essential, cause the bettor must know where to go when the contest is over in order to claim his winnings if he

"That fact was recognized. So that the evidence tends to show that there was a certain place at which the defendant was carying on the business He had his card or slate, which served as a means of publishing to all the odds at which he was willing to take bets. He had the sheet on which the record of the bet would be made, and he followed a

GOOD SPORT AT LATONIA.

BEAU BRUMMEL IS A STAYER AND WINS AT A MILE IN GOOD STYLE.

Lady Jocelyn Takes Another Steeplechase-Henry O. Improves Surprisingly-Horsemen Getting Ready to Depart.

Cincinnati, O., November 16 .- A well arranged program of six races, of which the third, a condition affair for two-year-olds in which the youngsters were asked to go a mile, and a steeplechase over the clubhouse course, were in the nature of headliners and had the effect, together with the moderating weather, of bringing out a banner crowd. The running of both races proved to be interesting, and as the public choices won in both but little unfavorable comment could be heard. In the two-yearold race John Marklein's Star Shoot youngster Beau Brummel made his opponents look cheap by jumping into the lead, showing the way unextended and win ning eased up by three lengths from the heavily backed Crafty and Miss Lida. In the steeplechase the books were hit exceptionally hard, inasmuch as a well defined tip had been passed around early in the day to the effect that "this was the day for Lady Jocelyn." When the prices were posted a concerted plunge was made that loaded every book. That Lady Jocelyn was well meant was shown by the running. Peter Becker, which had been the pacemaker, was taken wide into the stretch when Lady Jocelyn made her run, allowing her to win as her rider pleased. Peter Becker was an easy second over Profitable, which had repeatedly been taken back while going through the field, but closed up like a wild horse in the run through the stretch.

J. W. Pugh shipped Free Booter, Field Lark and oluca to New Orleans tonight.

Henry O., which showed such decided improvehis last race by winning the cle race, was bid up $400 over his entered price of a like amount and bought by F. W. Torreyson. Jockey T. Taylor left for his home in Lexington this evening to rest up until the opening of the Crescent City tracks. E. J. Gildersleeve was called into the judges' stand after Daring won the second race to explain the sudden improvement of his horse.

Jockey C. Koerner, who had the mount on Ruiloba in the last race, was injured while pulling up after the race, the horse stumbling and Koerner luckily got off with a few ing him. slight bruises.

L. Bloom, of Mexico, closed a deal with J. B. Haggin by wire by which he became the purchaser of 100 broodmares and fillies. He has also bought of J. H. Baker the chestnut horse Handmore, for a consideration of $100. He will be used to improve the breed of horses in Mexico. In addition to the above Mr. Bloom has closed a deal for fortyeight mares which all become the property of the Mexican government.

C. Helfers came down from Chicago this morning and reports they are having a hard time holding help around the California tracks on account of the scarcity of labor on the coast.

Jockey Vincent Foy has closed a contract to ride for J. W. Pugh during the New Orleans meeting. Horsemen are making complaints of the scarcity of cars for shipping to the New Orleans tracks. Roger Sullivan, former secretary of the Queen City Jockey Club, was a visitor at the track today. J. B. Respess bet $50 straight and show on Temple in the fifth race, getting as good as 9 to 1 for his money straight and 2 to 1 to show.

SITE FOR THE NEW TRACK SECURED.

Cincinnati, O., November 16.—For the gentlemen interested Matt J. Winn and Hon. Joe Rhinock have finally selected and bought the Half Moon Farm on the West Virginia side of the Ohio River Farm on the West Virginia side of the Ohio River opposite Steubenville. Here the new track that will cater to Pittsburg, Wheeling and smaller nearby communities will be laid out and brought to completion in time for racing next summer. This will place the new racing plant within one hour's ride from Pittsburg and about one-third of that time will be all that is necessary to get the crowd from Wheeling. Traction lines run in every direction and residents of many of the smaller manufacturing towns in that region will have no trouble facturing towns in that region will have no trouble getting to the race course.

Three sites were considered—Holiday's Cove. Cross Creek Farm and Half Moon Farm—with some preference for Cross Creek Farm. The latter place was given up because of an oil lease and Holiday's Cove because the syndicate owning it decided to sell it for manufacturing purposes. Rhinock and Winn went to New York after securing the site. As soon as they return from the east all preliminaries will be arranged and the contracts for the building the track and stands will be given out at once, the track and stands will be given out at once, as it is proposed to hold a race meeting there next summer, and that means hustling.

Since the matter of building a track near Pittsburg was aired in print some time ago there has been a big demand from all ends for stock in the venture. A company will be formed as soon as possible, probably with a capital of $500,000.

It is proposed to hold a high-class meeting at the track, and the stake offerings will be large enough to induce the owners of the best horses to ship there. A jockey club will be formed on the lines similar to the former Washington Park Club.

The building of the new race course will, to a certain extent, relieve the pressure in the west and give the horsemen a chance to realize on their investments without overracing at any given point. Those who have gone over the situation are all of the opinion that the venture will be a paying one, as the field is an exclusive one, and every square foot is occupied by a person with some sporting blood in his veins.

system which sufficiently identified the bettor so as to enable him to return and claim his winnings, if he happened to win.
"Is not that the whole substance of the case which the Court of Appeals had before it? seems to me there is nothing lacking.

'Under that decision I understand that one who sets up the business of bookmaking in substantially way at a definite place, and carries it with the public generally, is setting up and keeping a gaming table within the meaning of the decision, and the evidence tends to show that the defendant did that in this case.

"A word as to the Klein case. The evidence may not have gone so far as it has in this case, but the District: Attorney at that trial seems to have taken the position that if the bookmaker had no right to remain in the place he was occupying, no legal right as between him and the owner of the land or the building, it could not be claimed that he was sufficiently located.

"That is not the position taken by the government in this case, and it seems to me that it is not necessary that the layer of odds should have any such right as that in order to be in fact identified some particular place sufficiently to have it said that he is setting up his contrivance and keep-

"One case which was quoted in the Miller case is the case of Bows against Feinwick, an English case. There the defendant was prosecuted for keeping a place for gaming. It was in the open grounds, and the way he kept the place was to fix in the ground a pole or stake, at the top of which was an um-

"He did his business under that. He could remove the umbrella to any other place. He had no right whatever to occupy that place. He was liable to be moved on by the police, as the court says at the close of the opinion, but the court held that made no difference. The fact that he paid no rent and was liable to be moved by the police did not prevent his keeping the place for the purpose of gaming, if in fact he did keep it.

"Now, the fact that these layers have no right as between themselves and the owners of the ground to remain in any particular locality, it sems to me, has nothing to do with the question if in fact they did keep themselves in certain places, so that they were at those respective places setting up and carrying on this business."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Pat Dunne's horses arrived at City Park in safety and good condition.

J. J. Murry & Co., with whom A. H. Morris is interested, have arrived in New Orleans with ten youngsters fresh from the Morris ranch in Texas.

District Attorney Jerome has announced that he will prepare and have infroduced in the New York legislature a bill for the repeal of the Percy-Gray law which protects racing in that state.

The specials to be run at Oakland next week are the Firenze Handicap, $600, Tuesday; the Gloaming Handleap, $1,000, Wednesday; the Tradition Handicap, $600, Thursday, and the Artful Handicap, $1,- John Odom has sold Out of Reach to F. A. Forsythe, who will use him in the stud. Out of Reach is six years old and is a well-bred young horse, being by the Epsom Derby winner, Persimmon-Sandfly and should do well in Kentucky.

Among arrivals of horses in New Orleans last Wednesday were: Ed. Richardson's six from Galla-tin, Tenn., where they have been on the farm. R. Watkins shipped eighteen from Texas. These horses have been resting up since the summer campaign at New York. John Huffman sent eleven from his farm in Greenville, Ill., and W. K. Henderson three from Latonia.

Went to post at 1:59. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily? second and third driving. Sir Vagrant was favored by clear sailing, wore down Sagapanak in the final farlong and won going away. The latter, running in improved form, set the pace for five furlongs, then tired and swerved badly, interfering with Ben True. The latter seemed dangerous after entering the stretch and might have been a more serious contender but for the interference. All Ablaze had bad racing luck. Blacklock ran poorly. Precept ran a fairly good race and is worth remembering. Beans made up a lot of ground in the last half. Griften ran below his best form.

Overweights—Ben True, 2½ pounds; Blacklock, 1½; Precept, 2; Red Ogden, 5.

Winner—B. c, by Jean Bereaud—Intrepid (trained by J. S. Merchant).
Went to post at 2:24. At post 8 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second and third the same.
Daring found the track to his liking today and, after overcoming interference at the start, made up ground rapidly on the turn for home and, drawing away in the stretch, won with plenty in reserve. Simon Kent ran well and was on the outside for the entire trip. Lord Dixon, weakly ridden in the early, stages, inished with a rush and nipped Belltoone for third place in the last stride. The latter showed superior speed for five furlongs, but tired badly in the final strides. Oleasa finished close up. St. Noel closed a gap and finished gamely. French Nun can do much better. King Pepper sulked. Lady Carol fell lame.

Scratched—(65512)Field Lark, 102; 65512 Nun's Veiling, 102; 655312Black Art, 110.

Overweights—Lord Dixon, 1 pound; The Thrall, 1; Oasis, 2½.

Winner—B. c, by Star Shoot—Dixoletta (trained by John Markein).

Went to post at 2:53. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. Beau Brummel was favored in the weights and ran like a stayer, raced Miss Alert into defeat in the first half and was thereafter never in danger of defeat. Crafty ran forwardly throughout, but was doing his best at the end to stall off the rush of Miss Lida. The latter began slowly, but finished, as usual, with a rush. Miss Alert ran a good half and tired. Grace Kimball did not display her usual speed. Lexoline seemed to kulk all the way.

Overweights—Grace Kimball, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. m, by Pirate of Penzance—Belle Swift (trained by C. A. Holt).

Went to post at 3:18. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Lady Jocelyn was reserved in the early part of the race but, after taking the minth jump, moved up fast and, racing Peter Becker into defeat on the flat, won easing up. Peter Becker ran and fenced in inproved form, displayed much speed and appeared all over the winner after taking the last jump, but went wide on the turn into the homestretch, losing several lengths. Profitable was taken back repeatedly in the trip through the field and finished with a belated rush. Dawson fenced well, but failed to stay. Rejectable, Plea and War Chief ran below their best form, Naughty B. and Maverick ran out at the third jump.

Went to post at 3:43. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third the same. Temple was favored by his light weight and was a forward contender under restraint for a half, then sprinted into a long lead on the turn for home and won in a canter. Beatrice K. was under pressure all the way and had no chance with the winner, but easily held second place safe. Globe Runner was badly messed about in the early stages and finished fast under punishment. Ed Early ran in improved form. Percy Green quit badly after running a good five furlongs. Fenian and Falkland ran fairly well. The others were badly strung out at the finish.

Overweights—Beatrice K., 4½ pounds; Falkland, 2½; Percy Green, 1½; Sherrill, 4½.

Winner—Br. g, by Charade—Fruit of the Loom (trained by A. C. Bellew).

Went to post at 4:06. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving; third the same. Henry O. showed improvement under a good ride, forced a fast pace for a half, then took the lead, raced Minnehaba and Dan McKenna into defeat and won drawing away. Gamester was shuffled back at the start, but made up ground gamely and, finishing with a rush, might have been a more serious contender but for being in tight quarters. Dan McKenna ran well to the stretch and tired badly under punishment. Annie Berry was messed about in the early stages and finished fast. Ruiloba can do better. Minnehaba showed the most early speed, but quit badly when the real racing came. Inspector Girl was pulled up after gding a half.

*Omitted from entries.

Winner—B. f., by Melton—Dainty (trained by W. Brooks).

Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Adelinette was easily best, ran under reserve behind Brittanby to the stretch and readily went to the front when called on. Brittanby showed the most early speed and held on gamely at the end. Narelle seemed favored by the going, finished gamely and her race was a good one. Diebold's race was too bad to be true and, on his Pimlico form, he should have been closer up. Meddlesome Boy closed a gap and finished fast.

Scratched—65381 Pins and Needles, 102.

Incorrect weight in entries—Narelle, 103.

Overweights—Brittanby, 1 pound; King of Spades, 1.
